

Keyword In Context implementation

---

Introduction

Key Word In Context (KWIC) index system produces a list of permuted text to enable the fast and effective searches based on the keywords. KWIC is widely used for various purposes, such as in searching for movie titles, food recipes and blogs. Due to this wide usage, our design priority is primarily expandability followed by performance.

Design Overview